SIERRA MINES GROUP TO HAVE DEVELOPMENT

"DEATH VALLEY" SCOTTY'S PLACE IS HIT BY STORM

TONOPAH (Nev.) August 24—Walter "Death Valley Scotty" Scott, world famous desert character, prepared today to repair damage to his $1,000,000 castle at the mouth of Grapevine Canyon after a cloudburst had damaged the magnificent structure to the extent of thousands of dollars.

A cloudburst occurred in the canyon north of his Death Valley, Cal., castle at 1 A. M. Saturday.

A $75,000 pipe organ, a glass and marble swimming pool and other features of the exotic mansion, built by Scotty's friend, Albert M. Johnson, wealthy Chicago insurance broker, were destroyed.

90 CENTS CUT IN TAX RATE IS SEEN

PLACERVILLE (El Dorado Co.) A saving of one dollar on the tax rate is tentatively provided under the budget adopted by the board of supervisors here, in session for the last three days. Further consideration is to be given at the session today, and a tax rate will probably be fixed at least 90 cents less than last year.

Requests of the Taxpayers Association for reductions in various of fees, including cuts in the district attorney and sheriff's "secret funds" were granted in most instances by the board, but a request that the tax be abolished, in view of the increase in state moneys, was rejected by the supervisors.

And I hasten to add this small rosebud

YOUNG FOLKS OF LAKE TAHOE 'GO HOLLYWOOD'

Three Tahoe youngsters and two local young ladies received quite an unexpected thrill on Thursday, when Matt Callahan and Mike Kelley, officials of the Fox Film Co. of Hollywood, here on location, selected them from among the many school children of this district to play "doubling" parts in a new Will Rogers picture called "There's Always Tomorrow," now being filmed by Miss Barbara Howrigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howrigan of Tahoe City, was chosen to double for Zazu Pitts, who is being co-starred with Rogers, Miss Jean Bartholomew of Brockway doubled for another prominent actress in the film, believed to be Janet Gaynor, Miss Mary Jane Soll and Miss Helen Worden doubled for Rogers' twin daughters in the script and Jimmie Baker, son of Mrs. Charles Swanson, doubled for Rogers' small son Junior.

The young folks thoroughly enjoyed their experience, being dressed and treated like real film celebrities during their brief engagement. At noon they were taken in machines to Donner Hotel where a delicious dinner was served them on the vine-covered veranda.

A small crowd of townsfolk who heard of the event were present at the Donner camp grounds where the film was "shot," to watch the procedure. The youngsters, who have been promised passes by their director (who, with his company, hurried on to Yellowstone Park) are now eagerly awaiting the advent of the new Rogers picture here.

JACK MORROW PUTS JON RIDING SHOW, EXHIBITION

The cowboy races and saddle-horse show held at Brockway riding stables by Jack Morrow Sunday, August 21, drew a large crowd from different points around the Lake.

Relay race, 3 horses, was won by Chaska West; the stake race was won by Jack Morrow riding the beautiful black horse, Smoky.

In the saddlehorse show the ladies' chair prize went to seven-year-old Patsy Patterson of Dayton, Ohio, riding Queen, an H ranch mare. Patsy is one of the many pupils taking riding lessons from Jack at Brockway. Jack Morrow also gave an imitation on the five gaited horse he rides at the stables. This horse is known as Blucher and for class, gait, beautiful bridle action and manners is declared a credit to any string.

Queen was ridden by little Patsy with English saddle and Polo bridle, show ring rules.

After August 30, it will be unlawful for anyone to transact retail business without such a license, it was stated.

Mrs. O. J. Rablin has returned from a trip to Roseville.

Edmunds of Truckee; for Placer County, H. O. Comstock of Brockway; for El Dorado County, A. Richardson of Placerville.

Returning from a regional meeting of county chairmen of the National Recovery Administration held in Sacramento Friday, C. Edmunds, "general" in charge of the local campaign announced that the committee would start this week to check up and tabulate the local business firms with a view of reporting its findings to the State Administration offices in San Francisco. This report has been asked for by General Hugh S. Johnson, to determine who, if any, may be subject to the penalty provisions of the act.

William Boucher, secretary of the Sacramento regional council of the state Chamber of Commerce, who has been appointed Regional Supervisor of the NRA, presided over the meeting and explained the course of action outlined by George Creel, Administrator for California, Utah and Nevada.

"Employers who regard their Blue Eagle emblems as 'scraps of paper' are due for a rude awakening," explained Boucher. He pointed out that the government desired the voluntary army to act more as administrators than policemen in enforcing the NRA but where persuasion fails, prosecution would follow.

Edmunds announced that where any business head was in doubt of his action under the Blanket or any special Code, he placed himself at his disposal to help interpret the code from the many rulings he now has on hand, or is prepared to get an interpretation from San Francisco on short notice.

Assistant United States Attorney Gustave Hjelan of Sacramento, who was present during the meeting, told the County Chairmen that it was their business to see that the program was carried out and that each one would be held responsible for its fulfillment. He promised the fullest support of his office in the prosecution of violators of the pledges and codes. Conviction means a fine of $500 or six months imprisonment in the county jail; fines for each separate offense.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE IS DISMISSED AGAINST B. INARRIO

Because there was no eyewitness to the accident, District Attorney Slater of Placer County, under the law refused to prosecute for manslaughter, Benito Inarrio, held in connection with the accident that caused the death of Stanley Bavier, Truckee publisher.

Inarrio was tried for reckless driving and given a sentence of two hundred and fifty dollars by Judge George Bliss of Tahoe City.

Traffic Officer McGee filed a complaint against Inarrio, charging that he was driving in California without a license. A ten-dollar fine was imposed but later remitted by the court.

McColl reported that little Jean was the only one to enjoy the heat in Pasadena.

CALL TO ARMS

The following article was written by Stanley Bavier on the day of his appointment as Nevada County chairman of the National Recovery Administration, the same day on which he received injuries in an automobile accident which resulted in his death.

Sixteen years ago the American people were called upon to join hands in a great world cooperative movement in a crisis no more threatening than the present crisis, in the name of patriotism and the ideals of a democracy. They responded, knowing they were pledging themselves to suffer staggering losses and incur incalculable debts.

Fathers and mothers answered the call in faith, though with breaking hearts.

Our youth did not hold back even though they knew the way threatened suffering, crippled bodies and death.

Labor united for a common good, business and industry placed the desire to serve above the hope for profit, selfishness was banished, money was freely given, and more than a hundred million Americans joined hands in a common cause.

Today a great American leader in the White House, backed by a Congress made up of statesmen of vision and courage, enabled to act in a fearful human crisis, has sounded a ringing call to all the people to join in what is the greatest cooperative movement in the history of the American Nation.

We are asked to proceed again in a mighty concert of action, and this time the way ahead glows with promise of a better day.

Then sorrow lay in wait and death lurked in the shadows. Today there is no danger—unless the people fail to respond.

We were united then—and fighting for a great ideal. We must fight again—and fight for an ideal equally as high.

Can we muster equal courage in 1933—courage founded upon a faith sublime, bright-glowing with hope?

Congress has prescribed the plan. The President has shown and blazed the way. The task is for all the people.

National recovery means the restoration of prosperity—American pride and self-respect. Every man, woman and child in Nevada County is asked today to join with the fellow citizens of every part of the United States in the mightiest movement in the history of the world.

Today you are called upon to help put Nevada County "over the top" and show the rest of the nation that the people of Nevada County can be depended upon in a National emergency to do their bit 100 per cent.

NEVADA COUNTY CAN AND WILL DO ITS PART!

STANLEY BAVIER

By Tim O'Hanrahan

My devoted respects to Truckee's and Nevada County's most brilliant citizen, Stanley Bavier.

Just as his brilliant progressive ideas were being recognized his dear life was snuffed out by the recklessness of a death driven car by an individual who had no legal right to drive a car upon our highways.

He was a man who had the interest of his people and the advancement of the whole county in his kind heart. He had just received two Federal appointments from the present administration for his honesty, fairness and outspoken brilliant editorials which were nationally recognized. It has certainly cast a gloom over our little city where he will be missed the most and it is indeed most unfortunate that such an outstanding citizen and loved one should be taken from us.

In just two short years Truckee's citizens knew him as a hard working progressive citizen and all those who came in contact with him learned to love and respect him more each day. Stanley Bavier was the type that had wonderful foresight and by his publications showed and outlined many progressive improvements for our city and county and with the Federal administration power and authority which was vested in him we expected great accomplishments. We have lost a gallant leader at this critical time. Our hearts grieve in sympathy with his devoted wife and pray that she may overcome this great loss and that God will give her health and strength to carry on where our beloved one left off.

RECKLESS DRIVING

By Mrs. Chas. Swanson

"For want of a nail the shoe was lost, for want of the shoe the horse was lost, for want of the horse the rider was lost, for want of the rider the army was lost, for want of the army the kingdom was lost, and all for the loss of a horse shoe nail!"

How many folks realize that it is the little things in Life that count—the little laws as well as the big ones! Not large enough, perhaps, if broken, to cause arrest, or fine, or imprisonment, but large enough to cause untold misery and suffering to someone.

How many times have you "cussed" the other fellow for stopping suddenly without even a pretense of a signal, for failing to warn you of an unexpected turn he decided to make, for hogging the middle of the road, for passing a car on a curve or near the top of a hill where vision ahead was limited or impossible, or at an intersection, for parking in a narrow place directly upon the highway or on the wrong side of the road entirely, for taking his curves in the middle or wrong side, especially on mountain roads, for failing to observe the courtesy of dimming glaring headlights when approaching at night, for speeding in restricted districts, and a hundred other breaches of the law, and then, almost without conscious thought, proceeded to break any number of these same statutes yourself?

Not until we learn to exercise the same courtesy on the road that we do in our homes, our offices, in meeting the public in general, will the yearly toll of human lives be lessened. Consider two people entering a doorway or elevator at the same moment. Invariably one steps back to let the other pass. If a collision occurs, quick apologies usually ensue immediately. Yet how many of us appear to forget the respect and civility we owe our fellow man the moment we step into an automobile and hit the highways! Just a little less haste and a little more consideration for others would go a long way toward making automobiling more enjoyable and less hazardous.

Don't criticize your neighbor's driving, but let every driver resolve conscientiously to regard religiously to the letter each traffic law and regulation, be it large or small, that these tragic accidents with their frequent loss of life and limb may be avoided, or at least diminished.

YOUR GOOD HEALTH

Explaining the Cause and How to Treat Eczema Of the Scalp

By CLAUD NORTH CHRISMAN, M.D.

THE word eczema comes from the Greek and means "to boil over" which does not explain much. It is hard to consider eczema of the scalp without considering eczema in general, because the same things that cause it on the scalp may cause it over the other parts of the body. Eczema is an acute or chronic inflammation accompanied by severe itching and burning and a great many lesions of pimples, blisters, scales and scabs. There are so many forms that almost any inflammation of the skin with itching and weeping followed by scales and scabs can be called eczema.

vermin, may be the exciting cause. . . . PERHAPS the greatest cause is a generally run-down condition. Any worry or disease that lowers the vitality may be the starting cause. In children the undernourished and poorly cared for or the very fat anemic child will be affected. Intestinal disturbances, such as intestinal indigestion, acidosis, chronic liver trouble, or excessive use of alcohol and tobacco are exciting causes. The disease will not get well until these causes are removed, and many failures to cure are due to the fact that these internal causes are not remedied.

THE application of the various advertised lotions and ointments guaranteed to cure will be very disappointing unless the general systemic condition is remedied. The results of eczema of the scalp and hairy surfaces, if continued for long, will be a loss of hair or at least a dry, lusterless head of hair with the hairs always shedding and breaking off and always tousled. The local treatment should be confined to the use of bland oils to remove scales and crusts, or a dry powder in a weeping case, with strict cleanliness.

WHEN the skin is red and angry, an ointment of 10 grains of precipitated sulphur to the ounce of vaseline is useful, and in obstinate cases 10 to 30 grains of the same to an ounce of cold cream is advised. Sulphur baths are very helpful, but the care and treatment of eczema must be under the direction of a competent physician.

WEALTH

By EDGAR A GUEST

Wealth is friendship tried and true
Wealth is joyous, happy hours,
Strength the daily tasks to do.
Wealth is trees and birds and flowers.

Wealth is tender sentiment,
Peace of mind and heart's content,
All man's senses and his powers.

Wealth is beauty to the eye,
Stars at night and silver beams
Of the soft moon in the sky;
Music made by rippling streams.
Wealth is faith and courage bold
And the loyalty to hold Fast to all man's nobler dreams.

Wealth is all the countless things
Memory prizes down the years;
That sweet comfort friendship brings
When our eyes are wet with tears.
Gold is but a minor part.
Wealth is of the mind and heart,
Gracing all our hopes and fears.

Capitol News Letter

By MELVIN LORD

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., August 24—

(UP)—Taxation still is the paramount issue at the state capitol.

Governor Rolph stopped a lot of conjecture when he announced he would kill the state income tax bill by means of a pocket veto. Said the Governor:

"If the sales tax revenue is not sufficient to remove the anticipated deficit of 1933-35, I will summon a special session of the legislature to raise additional revenue."

In announcing the veto Rolph said the income tax was "Unsound" and that the budget should have been balanced through diversion of $17,000,000 in gasoline taxes as he proposed originally.

While the sales tax is well under way, the confusion is as great as ever. In an attempt to stop "tax profiteering," the state board of equalization is prepared to issue tax stamps in books of 200 for 25 cents. Each stamp would be worth one-eighth cent, or the equivalent to the exact tax on a 5-cent purchase. This would prevent the charging of 1 cent on small purchases, a rate far in excess of the 2½ per cent provided by law.

Despite the claim of lawmakers that the 50th session was an "economy" legislature, it was revealed that the assembly passed a $5,244 appropriation bill for "general expenses" and then used the money to pay the members' transportation to the mid-summer session. Inasmuch as it was a special session, and mileage money already had been allowed, there was no legal means such claims could be paid—but the assemblymen got their mileage just the same.

First steps toward an extensive state unemployment relief program were taken this week when it was decided that a block of $6,000,000 worth of the $20,000,000 relief bonds voted at the special election, should be sold "within 60 days." The money derived from sale of the bonds will be available to cities and counties immediately after the sale.

California farmers now are in a position to enter into curtailment programs in an attempt to gain better prices for their products. A pro-rate commission authorized in a bill passed by the legislature, has been appointed by Governor Rolph. Under the law two-thirds of the producers of a given product may obtain a pro-rate agreement from the commission and the recalcitrant one-third will be forced into the curtailment program.

A HEALTHY SKIN IS FIRST REQUISITE FOR SMARTNESS

By JACQUELINE HUNT
SMARTNESS and good grooming are the standards by which the modern woman is measured. If, in addition, she has lovely features and vivacity, then she is all the more charming. Every one of you can gain a reputation for your good looks if you will just pay attention to details and will improve each feature as much as possible.

MISS HUNT

See to it that your complexion is clear and soft first of all when you plan a beauty routine for improving your looks. Nice features can only be attractive when your skin is clear and soft. Proper cleansing methods are usually sufficient to improve the color and texture of the skin if there are no serious blemishes and if your health is good.

Allow yourself at least a half hour for your evening beauty treatment. Begin by cleansing your skin thoroughly with a soft cleansing cream that will melt immediately. The proper way of applying cleansing cream is with a pad squeezed out of cold water. This is a more economical way of using cream, and at the same time you will get a uniform film of cream over the entire face. Allow the cream to melt and then remove with soft tissues. After this, wash the face with mild soap and tepid water to complete the cleansing. Rinse well and pat until dry.

The condition of your skin will determine the treatments that you use afterward. If your skin is inclined to be dry and rough, pat a generous amount of rich night cream into the skin and let it remain on for twenty minutes. Remove the cream that is not absorbed with a pad of cotton moistened with skin tonic or ice water. If your skin is chapped or is extremely sensitive, apply more cream and leave it on for a longer period, but be sure that every trace of it is removed with skin tonic before you go to sleep.

If your face is oily and affected with blackheads, use a saturated solution of Epsom salts after rinsing the face. Apply to the face with a piece of absorbent cotton, going over and over the skin for ten or fifteen minutes. Rinse off and pat the skin until dry. Then rub a speck of softening cream between the palms of the hands until most of it is absorbed, then smooth your hands over your face. After a few minutes, splash with more cold water and pat dry. This will prevent any irritation from the salts water.

When you get up in the morning, wash your face with a mild soap and tepid water (just a rinse with tepid water if your skin is dry and sensitive) and finish patting with a skin tonic. Unless your skin is very sensitive, or unless it will be subjected to unusual exposure, you will not need a foundation cream. Dust on your powder lightly and finish your make-up with rouge and a soft lipstick. If you need a foundation, use one of light kinds that will disappear almost immediately. You can hardly tell you have a foundation, yet your powder will stay on for hours.

When your skin is velvety and smooth and clear in color, your good features will not only appear glamorous, but you will have laid the foundation for good grooming.

Episcopal Chapel News

"Leaders may arise and do arise and I am ashamed to say that these so-called Christian people in America are so torn asunder that we have 212 different varieties of Christianity," said the Rev. Paul Little at the Episcopal chapel of the Transfiguration Sunday.

"At the recent American Legion convention we came to the conclusion that a man or woman with leadership can form any organization."

Dr. Little's text was—"And if I be lifted up from the earth I will draw all men unto me." "Look about you today and you will see that Jesus Christ, the poor man from the wicked city of Nazareth is still drawing disciples to Him. History again has proven over and over that His words were true even in these days of heartaches and materialism.

"We have only begun to live in the atmosphere of Christian ideals. Today there are hundreds of millions of people singing the song of the angels—'Peace on Earth and Good Will to Man.'"

"Great artists have found their great idealist to be Jesus of Nazareth and again He is drawing us to the music of the world. Where can we find such music that satisfies the soul as the music of the great masters who have written the symphonies.

"One of the thoughts the Master is drawing unto Himself are the ideals of the World. There are more people today than ever before in the history of mankind willing to accept the leadership of the Master and The Brotherhood of Man and Fatherhood of God. When the spirit of Christ becomes part and parcel of a tribe or race He lifts them from slavery to true brotherhood." Next Sunday will close the Episcopal chapel season at Lake Tahoe. The Rev. Paul Little will be the pastor in charge.

Striking Match To Locate Gas Leak Is Bad Business

SUSANVILLE, Cal., August 24—(UP)—Striking a match is a very effective method of locating an oil or gas leak, according to Walter Pegden, local transfer man.

Pegden believed a fuel oil car on a sidetrack was leaking. He struck a match. Gas from the dripping oil was ignited. Residents thought it was an earthquake when the explosion which followed rattled dishes and windows for many blocks in the vicinity.

Pegden escaped uninjured.

Nexdor—I'm going to take my radio set with me when I go on my vacation.

BANDITS EQUIP CAR WITH LOCAL WAVE LENGTH RADIO SET

SACRAMENTO, Cal., August 24—(UP)—Keeping a check on the movements of police radio patrol cars is the latest activity of Sacramento burglars in an effort to outwit the officers.

Entering a vacant house in the Curtis park district a special patrolman found Joe Enz dismantling the fixtures.

Taking his prisoner outside the officer found a truck parked at the curb. The machine was equipped with a radio, tuned in on the local police wave length.

The "lookout" man stationed in the truck escaped.

CALIFORNIA WILL SPEND $59,000,000 ON CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE IN 2 YEARS

By THOMAS B. MALARKEY

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., August 24—

(UP)—Expenditure during the next two years of $59,000,000 on state highway construction and maintenance was announced today by the department of public works.

The sum of $34,325,438 will be spent on road construction in 52 counties. Maintenance will require approximately $25,000,000. This will include primary highways, streets within which are highway connecting links and 68,000 miles of county roads which become part of the state highway system August 21.

The state highway commission approved the budget after weeks of intensive study. The vast program will be launched in October when contracts representing $10,000,000

outlay will be let.

"Governor Rolph has instructed me to proceed with construction work at the earliest possible moment," Earl Lee Kelly, director of the department of public works said today. "We are rushing our plans and the state will see the beehive of industry and activity on our state highway system within the next few months."

Included in the total budget is $16,000,000 federal funds made available through the National Recovery

Act. Contracts involving this fund will be drawn under federal specifications. They provide for preferential employment of veterans with dependents and a 34-hour week for laborers. Workers on such projects will be selected by state employment bureaus, by re-employment committees.

"With the heaviest motor vehicle registration in the state it is natural that Los Angeles county should receive the largest sum in the budget," Kelly said. "There are 20 projects to be launched in this county this biennium, embracing a total of $3,643,000."

Of interest to the entire state is the $150,000 allocation for grading and surfacing the Yosemite National Park road, via Wawona and the Park Tunnel. Fresno and Monterey counties' fight of years for improvement of the Mustang grade succeeded when $150,000 was allocated for that purpose.

NEW PRESS DISPOSES

OF OLD "JUNK" CARS

Motor car manufacturers are taking steps to remove "junk" cars from the roads, according to a report received by the National Automobile Club. Engineers have designed and built a giant hydraulic press, which at one stroke crushes

a junk car in one minute. The

"bale" is then dumped into a melting furnace.

Almost 100,000 old cars have been salvaged to date and materials returned to productive use.

FLOWER FESTIVAL TO BE HELD AT SAN LEANDRO SEPT. 14-17

SAN LEANDRO, Cal., August 17

(UP)—The Mrs. Franklin Delano

Roosevelt rose, which has been named in honor of the first lady of the nation, will be among the scores of new flowers on display at the ninth annual California

Flower Festival, September 14 to 17.

Carefully selected blossoms from the Mrs. Roosevelt rose will be rushed from the Richmond, Indiana nursery in which it is being grown, to San Leandro by airplane for its first western appearance. Mrs.

Roosevelt, presented with a bou-quet of this rose shortly after it was developed, expressed her appreciation of the flower, a variety of the Talisman with long, closely folded buds of golden-yellow color.

New flowers are expected to be a feature of this year's show, as will flowers new to this country.

In the latter class are dahlias imported from England and Australia especially for the festival.

With 2500 other summer and fall flowers, these dahlias are being grown in the San Leandro gardens of Charles Garrity for display in the Court of Autumn Flowers. This colorful display will be exhibited in the main lobby of the Durant-De-

Vaux Building. Tier after tier, these colorful blossoms will rise up to the walls of the lobby, greeting visitors to the west's largest flower show with a rainbow of warm beauty.

"Would you go into war if we had another one?"

"Yes, I'm a married man and there is nothing I would like so much in the world as a little peace and quiet."

Copper In Autos

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., August 17

(UP)—The automobile industry in the United States last year consumed 15 per cent of the copper produced in the country, according to figures reported to the California

State Automobile Association.

NOTHING DOES SO MUCH

RELIEF MONEY AVAILABLE SOON

By MELVIN LORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., August 24—(UP)—State funds for relief of unemployment and destitution will be available to Nevada county within the next two months, if present plans of state officials are carried out.

At a recent meeting of financial officers of the state it was decided that block of $6,000,000 worth of the $20,000,000 in relief bonds voted by the people at the June 27 election would be offered for sale "within 60 days."

The first of the bonds to be placed on the market will bear 4½ per cent interest and mature between 1938 and 1948.

Funds derived from the sale of these bonds will be used as loans to such counties and cities as may apply for this aid.

Under terms of relief legislation it was provided:

"Loans made under this act shall be secured by the notes of the counties or municipalities receiving such assistance, or by such other security as the emergency relief administrator may determine and shall constitute a debt . . . to the state. The loans shall bear interest at the rate paid by the state on the state bonds and shall be repaid in equal annual installments over a 10 year period beginning July 1, 1937."

It is the intent of the law, officials said, that funds provided should be used directly for the relief of local unemployment conditions. A careful check will be made on costs of administration and the method used in spending the money made available by the bond issue.

Approval of the bond issue measure was considered of particular importance in view of the policy adopted by the federal government in granting aid only to public agencies that have shown an inclination toward "self help."

NRA FUNDS IMPROVE NATIONAL FORESTS

Motorists, campers, and other outdoors enthusiasts soon will find important improvements in progress in some of the most popular recreational areas in California—the National Forests. This is indicated by a report received by the California State Automobile Association from the National Forest Service concerning plans for expenditure of $3,500,000 of NRA funds within National Forests of the California region during the next two years. Appropriations received by the Forest Service under the National Industrial Recovery Act are divided into three classes:

$2,978,000 for roads and trails required for the administration, protection, utilization and development of the forests.

$2,660,000 for forest highways which form a part of the United States and Federal-Aid highway systems.

$2,871,000 for forest protection and administrative improvements, and special forestry projects.

In addition to road and trail construction and betterment made possible by these appropriations, many other productive forestry activities will be undertaken, according to Regional Forester S. B. Shaw.

"Among the most important of these activities," Shaw said, "will be the building of extensive fire breaks, fire lookout observations, and telephone lines which are needed for the protection of the forests; the improvement of many new public camp grounds for the use of campers and motorists; the construction of ranger and guard stations in the forests; projects for the control of insect infestations and rodents that destroy the mountain meadows and ranges; stock driveway and range fence construction; erosion control; the improvement of forest waters for fish; and many other similar National Forest activities."

In addition to expenditures for machinery and equipment needed for the work, it is estimated that the appropriations will provide employment amounting to one and a half million man-days of labor, equivalent to the employment of 10,000 men at a substantial wage for periods of 150 days each. All positions, except common labor, will be under civil service and work will be on the basis of a 30-hour week.

"I desire to ask your daughter to be my wife," said the young man. "Well, don't get me all mixed up in it," said the father. "If you don't get along together I don't want you to have a chance to say it was my fault."

FOOD, MILK AND WATER

ON your vacation, make it a point to have three good meals a day. The proper food in proper amounts is essential to building up the reserve of mental and physical energy for the next year's work.

But do not overeat, particularly during hot weather. Many attacks of so-called "acute indigestion" are due to heart weakness brought on by overeating and drinking, or undue exertion.

Most people confine themselves too much to the staple articles of diet, such as meat, bread, potatoes and sugar in various combinations. In hot weather it is particularly advisable to avoid eating too much meat. Cereals, fruit, vegetables, eggs, milk, salads, fish and a moderate amount of meat should be the chief articles of diet. Although green vegetables and fresh fruits should be eaten in abundance, care should be taken to maintain a balanced diet.

Vegetables and cereals should be thoroughly cooked. If you carry cooked food on a camping trip or picnic, it should be kept in glass jars. By all means avoid keeping food in an open metal container, or a can that has been opened. Any food, particularly meats, fish and poultry, that you may suspect from taste or smell to be contaminated should not be eaten.

Beverages

Drink pure milk and pure water. Avoid drinking too many iced soft drinks, as well as alcoholic beverages, which are common causes of gastrointestinal upsets.

Milk in country places is not always pasteurized. It is a wise precaution to inspect the dairy or storage place of the milk you have to drink.

Scrupulous cleanliness and a cool place for storage are necessary to keep milk pure. Don't carry a supply of milk too long in a thermos bottle, for if it gets warm, bacteria multiply too freely. Make a special effort always to obtain the purest milk you can find, even if it costs a few cents more per bottle. If you are traveling with a baby, it is better to carry along a supply of evaporated milk, dried whole milk and pure water.

If your child is going to a summer camp, find out if the water supply has been tested and kept under favorable conditions. If necessary, have it analyzed yourself.

Be careful of the water you drink in camps, summer resorts, and by the roadside when traveling. Make sure that no contamination by sewage or barnyard pollution is possible. If in doubt, use only boiled water or certified bottled water, and if you can't be sure of obtaining it readily, carry along a thermos bottle of pure, cold water.

This is the fifth of a series of 12 articles on Vacations and Health. The sixth, on What to Wear, will answer the questions:

1. What clothes are coolest?
2. Should men wear belts or suspenders?
3. What kind of shoes should be worn?

Traveling Men To "Sell" Jobs Program To Nation

WASHINGTON—"Now there's the one about the traveling salesman!"

This is a story about how the organized traveling men of the country—900,000 strong—have enlisted in the President's emergency reemployment campaign.

They offered their services thru Joseph H. Dryer, of New York, president of the National Council of Traveling Salesmen's Associations. In a conference with officials of the National Recovery Administration, Mr. Dryer pointed out that the 900,000 members of the traveling men's organizations can do a tremendous amount of good work because they come in daily contact with a very large number of people in all sections of the country. Their part will be to explain the scope and purposes of the NRA program and help "sell" it to the Nation as they go about their travels.

NO BULLS IN SIGHT SO WOULD-BE BULL FIGHTER STABS TREE

WOODLAND Cal., August 24—(UP)—L. Flores, Mexican ranch worker, had visions of wildly enthusiastic crowds applauding his prowess as a bullfighter.

Preparing for his career in the arena, Flores entered the front yard of Deputy County Auditor Ed Brendle to practice his chosen profession. No bull being in sight, the ranch worker vigorously attacked the trees with a large beet knife. Brendle called police.

Taken into custody as intoxicated, Flores explained he was merely perfecting the thrusts he planned to use in the arena.

EIGHT SPECIES OF RATTLESNAKES IN STATE SAY OFFICIALS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., August 24—(UP)—California is the home of eight different kinds of rattlesnakes—instead of only two.

In a recent warning issued against snakes, the department called attention to the Texas rattler and the desert diamond rattlesnake.

According to a communication from the California academy of sciences, the Bleached, Panamint, Green Basin, Red Diamond, Mojave and Horned or Sidewinder rattlesnakes also are found in the state.

Just that many more reasons for being careful, according to health officials.

Agricultural Recovery Forecast by Implement Display At California State Fair

SACRAMENTO, August 24—Farm machinery manufacturers are banking on the agricultural recovery of California.

To the tune of nearly one million dollars they are sending exhibits to the California State Fair which opens in Sacramento September 2. Not since the opening of the great Arcade farm machinery building has such a variety of displays been assembled. Mining machinery and other non-agricultural exhibits formerly shown in the pavilion will this year have to take other quarters.

Working with the division of agricultural engineering of the college of agriculture of the University of California, the implement industry will this year present a full line of farm tools particularly adapted to California conditions and crops.

New equipment for the spraying, dusting and washing of fruit will show the orchardist how to overcome the problem of spray residue on fruits.

A large section of the machinery building will be given over to gasoline and electric pumping equipment, which will be operating about the pool in the central court. Reflecting the growing interest during the year in internal combustion units, many new models will be shown, ranging from the small "stove top" engine up to the large Diesel units.

DON'T TAKE DOWN YOUR SIGN Mr. Business Man!

Sometimes people say that they would advertise if they could afford it, but that their business does not warrant the expenditure of funds for advertising. That's putting the horse behind the cart. Advertising is the horse that draws the cart.

Don't take down your sign because business doesn't happen to be so good as was in boom times. Rather polish up the sign and go after more business.

Don't let up on advertising because customers' dollars are more elusive or more retiring. Advertising is the best stimulant. Experts all say so. Advertising will play a big part in the recovery of business.

Get your advertisement in The Sierra Sun and have one there every week in the year. We will be glad to help you in its preparation.

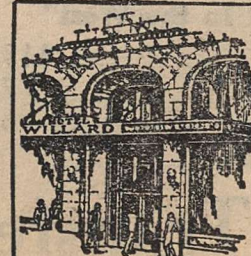

HERE'S SOMETHING TO REMEMBER

Newspaper advertising is without a superior as a medium of reaching customers. A regular visitor every week, the paper comes to the home because it is wanted there and its pages are read and re-read by every member of the family. The advertising it contains doesn't intrude and isn't of an imposing nature. It's not like direct mail advertising that's thrown at the public.

Tax Profiteering Must End, Say County Authorities

By MELVIN LORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., August 24—(UP)—Nevada county authorities will be called upon in the near future to aid the state board of equalization in a campaign to curb alleged sales tax profiteering, according to members of the board.

All cases where merchants are discovered misrepresenting the sales tax in order to increase their own profits will be presented to district attorneys for prosecution, as well as laid before Attorney General U. S. Webb, it was explained.

Announcement of the plan to prevent profiteering was made following a conference between members of the state sales tax division and representatives of the attorney general's office. A code of specific regulations is under preparation at the present time.

The division, it was announced, will make every legal effort to prevent merchants from advertising or representing the 2½ per cent sales tax on various articles as more than it actually is. The tax law specifically provides they cannot advertise they are "absorbing" the tax.

The state admittedly is in no position to "fix" prices, and merchants may increase their prices as they see fit. However, they will be prosecuted immediately if such increases are "improperly attributed to the sales tax."

In the meantime the board is completing plans for the issuance of sales tax stamps. These stamps would be printed in denominations of one-eighth cent, or the equivalent of the exact tax on a five-cent purchase.

In this way it will be possible, it was explained, to pay the proper tax on small purchases and prevent the over-taxing of these purchases under 40 cents.

Under present plans the stamp books would be issued with 200 stamps each, to be sold by the state for 25 cents and used at the time each purchase is made.

The Golden Text will be: "No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is the bosom of the father, he hath declared him" (John 1: 18). Other Bible citations will include: "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ" (1 Cor. 3:11).

The Lesson-Sermon also will include the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus established his church and maintained his mission on a spiritual foundation of Christ-healing. He taught his followers that his religion had a divine Principle, which would cast out error and heal both the sick and the sinning. The supremacy of Spirit was the foundation on which Jesus built." CLEAN GARAGE FLOORS

Allowing the car to stand on a garage floor covered with oil is one of the most effective ways of destroying tire mileage, according to L. G. Evens, Director of Road Side Service of the National Automobile Club. Oil and rubber are natural enemies and while the oil works slowly, it is none the less deadly. Keep the floor clean, not only for appearance sake, but for the sake of the tires.

MOTORISTS MUST STOP FOR WHITE CANES IN S. F.

Motorists driving in San Francisco must come to a stop when they encounter persons carrying white canes at intersections. Bill No. 379, passed by the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco on August 14th, incorporates this and also makes it unlawful for persons other than the blind to carry white canes.

Persons violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed $100.00 or imprisonment in the County Jail not to exceed three months.

The Public Safety Department of the National Automobile Club urges all motorists to cooperate with the San Francisco police in order to make the streets safe for blind persons.

The first low-fare program, he said, will cover the railroad's lines in six western states, and the second will provide for trips between all California stations with Reno, Nevada, also included. The return limit for the so-called Dollar Day excursions will be September 12, it was stated.

SQUEAKING SPRINGS

Springs sometimes continue to squeak even though lubricated regularly and if examined carefully it will be found that the squeak usually originates at the tip of the spring leaf, according to the Free Emergency Road Service of the California State Automobile Association. The trouble can be eliminated by grinding the tip of each leaf so that a round edge will come in contact with the adjoining leaf. The leaves should be thoroughly coated with graphite grease before reassembling.

INCREASE IN STATE
REVENUES EXPECTED
BY RECOVERY CODE

SACRAMENTO, Cal., August 24.—(UP)—Adoption of a recovery code by the oil industry is expected to result in an increase in revenues for the state, according to Rolland A. Vandegrift, state director of finance.

A report made by Vandegrift to Governor Rolph shows that income from oil leases fell from $250,000 to $214,000.

"During the coming year, assuming that the nit plan is placed in operation and that curtailment will bring advance prices, royalties from oil leases should show a substantial increase," Vandegrift said.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL
TO HAVE PROGRAMS

P. R. Nelson, principal of the local Grammar School, has announced an entirely new plan of extra-curricular activities for the coming year. Each Friday afternoon, one room will take charge and put on some sort of entertainment for the rest of the classes and for the parents. Nelson stressed the fact that parents are urged to come and see the work that is being done at the school. There will be teaching demonstrations, literary work, such as student written stories, essays, and poems, elocution, debating, and occasionally an educational motion picture. The program will start at one o'clock and will continue through the afternoon.

"I want to state most emphatically," said Nelson in an interview "that we shall vigorously enforce attendance rules this year. Since our enrollment numbers fewer than last year, so much nearer are we to the danger line of average daily attendance, where the State can step in and force us to discontinue the services of one teacher."

The recent trial of Otto E. Goebel in a New York court for fraud and conspiracy was the longest in American criminal jurisprudence.
